

Job Advertisement

German Embassy Cairo is seeking to employ as of April 1st, 2017 an

Assistant to the Political Department on a one year fixed-term contract (renewable).

Main duties:

- observation and analysis of political developments in Egypt and the Arab League
- research
- report

Requirements to be met:

- excellent command of German or English and Arabic (written and spoken)
- profound knowledge of the Egyptian political system
- communication skills and good handling of social media
- ability to analyse texts
- commitment, initiative and flexibility
- pleasure in working with people and capacity of teamwork
- University degree, preferably Master's degree in political sciences
- experience in the field of political analysis would be advantageous

Conditions are stipulated by the work contract used for the Embassy's locally employed personnel. The Embassy offers a competitive salary. Applicants who are not Egyptian by nationality must have a valid visa and a working permit. A security check is required.

If this advertisement appeals to you and you meet the requirements, please send your application by e-mail until February 28th, 2017 latest and submit the following documents:

- letter of motivation and CV
- supporting documents with regard to qualifications/graduation and work experience
- references

to info@kairo.diplo.de

Incomplete applications will not be taken into consideration.